

Operational Excellence – OpEx

INTRODUCTION:

Indian companies are going through a challenging phase. The expectations of the customer is increasing day by day. Competitions are stiff. Only the industries who are the best in terms of Quality, Cost, Delivery and Service are successful in the market. Nowadays none of the operations parameters is negotiable.

Hence organisations need to focus on excellence in operations. Meaning excellent in production, excellent in Quality, excellent in Inventory, excellent in employees management & involvement. It is the minimum requirement to be in the business.. Generally the OEMs are focusing on these initiatives in a focused way to maintain their market. It is necessary for the vendors namely Tier1, Tier 2 vendors to keep pace with the OEMs to meet their requirements. Keeping this in mind this important programme is designed.
